FTLife crowned with People's Daily's "Best Strategic CSR Award" Puts corporate social responsibility (CSR) in action to set industry benchmarks

FTLife proudly received the "Best Strategic CSR Award" at the 5th CSR Chinese Culture Awards Presentation Ceremony cum the First Chinese Culture CSR Forum, co-organized by The People's Daily and China Public Welfare Institute of Beijing Normal University, in recognition of Company's positive contribution to the society.

The CSR Chinese Culture Awards is highly supported and regarded by different sectors of the society as the first assessment platform in China dedicated to cultural development. Its judging criteria not only focus on the outcomes and effects of entries, but also their social influence, social innovation, social participation, cultural and CSR professionalism, and contributions of enterprises' management. The CSR Chinese Culture Awards offers significant guidance and reference value for enterprises in fulfilling CSR. FTLife went through three months of selection process that included online public voting and expert committee reviews; eventually, it stood out from hundreds of companies and individuals and was crowned with the "Best Strategic CSR Award".

This "Best Strategic CSR Award" is a high recognition of FTLife across the society. FTLife will continue to implement CSR consistently and contribute even more to the development of the insurance industry.
