Welcome bonus = single premium paid x applicable Promotion Rate
(as described in the table below)

The applicable Promotion Rate varies with the single premium paid as set out below:

Illustrative example for calculation of the welcome bonus with a single premium paid of USD100,000:

Single premium paid	= USD100,000
Applicable Promotion Rate (If the policy is applied during the Promotion Period and provided that the application is approved and the policy is issued on or before 31 July 2024)	= 1.0%
